Dr. Martin Ringel is a lawyer and founding partner of the law firm Ringel & Hillebrand. He works mainly in the fields of corporate, commercial and general civil law, particularly inheritance law. His area of legal advice includes above all M&A transactions, contract negotiations and drawing up contracts.

After obtaining his doctorate, Dr. Martin Ringel gained his initial professional experience as a lawyer employed by a public limited brewery company in Upper Bavaria. His main tasks included the establishment and management of a legal department, the shaping of company transactions and executive assistance. He worked for law firms focusing on commercial law and as a self-employed lawyer before he co-founded the law firm Ringel & Hillebrand with Dr. Stefan Hillebrand.

Dr. Martin Ringel is a member of the German-Italian Association of Jurists and the international association Associazione Internazionale Giuristi Lingua Italiana (AIGLI).
